Democratic Caucus One of the Largest on Record-Lillibridge and Wilcox For Selectmen-Keough Put Up a Hard Fight.

A record breaking caucus was that held by the democrats in the town hall on Monday evening, the crowd resembling one of the sessions last year when the water question was under discussion. just that a good, honest, economical administration of public affairs of the town of Norwich should be continued. Two years ago there was a floating debt of $40,000 about which, before election, very little was known. When the democratic party came in, besides disclosure that amount it was also the democratic party came in besides disclosing that amount, it was also found that there was a debt of from $6,000 to $7,000 more. All this had to be discharged by the democratic administration. It is now cleared away and every bill against the town has been paid.

For the office of registrar of voters, Edward T. Burke said that it was not the least important one to come before the next election. The man in either party must be able to do clerical work, be patient, be familiar with the election laws and ready and willing to impart information at all times. The presidential election comes next year and the registrar will have much to do in his line of duty, and much year and the registrar will have much to do in his line of duty, and much experience will be required. If a man has served you faithfully and well, is gentlemanly and courteous, painstaking and satisfactory, why make a change tonight? Some who are not democrats have been named by you tonight because the people have demanded it. Mr. Downes received high praise from the census hureau for his of Norwich were in bad condition.
